

Casey Abraham

Esthetician

Born and raised in Orlando, Florida, Casey completed her esthetics program at the Florida College of Natural Health in 2014 before coming to Denver in 2016. She specializes in balancing the skin's PH and customizing each service for every one of her clients based on their specific skin types and needs.

Moving from a humid climate to somewhere so dry, Casey truly understands how climate affects the skin. Advanced knowledge of how to balance the PH of the skin can help many different skin concerns and is beneficial for all skin conditions.

Casey likes the one-on-one environment that she is able to enjoy with her clients at The Spa at Matrix. "It makes it very easy for me to pamper my clients, customize their service and make them feel rejuvenated and beautiful."

In her free time, Casey enjoys yoga, walking her dog, hiking and cooking.
